United Nations

ABOUT

Taking place on the margins of the Fifth UN Conference on the Least Developed Countries (LDC5), the LDC5 Private Sector Forum (PSF) is a once in a decade opportunity to forge innovative business opportunities in the world's 46 Least Developed Countries (LDCs).

LDC5 will convene Heads of State and Governments of the full UN Membership of 193 countries with over 5000 expected participants.

Jointly organized by the UN Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States (UN-OHRLS) and Microsoft, the Forum takes place at a time when untapped potential for growth exists in the LDCs.

The Forum will explore partnership opportunities for private sector investments in LDCs in five priority sectors:

- Sustainable energy
- Agriculture and rural development
- Connectivity
- Climate Change
- Sustainable tourism

These sectors have the potential to support sustainable growth, increase productivity and employment creation in the LDCs over the coming decade.

The Forum will convene leaders from the private and public sector including political leaders from the Least Developed Countries and development partner countries, CEOs of global companies and those from LDCs, impact investors and foundations, heads of international organizations as well as regional and international financial institutions.

The three-day PSF will feature a High-Level Opening Dialogue led by the President of Microsoft, five thematic sessions, side-events and networking and exhibition areas with booths.

The PSF will provide a platform for direct interaction between company representatives and delegations from LDCs as well as other stakeholders, offering business networking opportunities.

The combined population of the LDCs is over 1.1 billion. LDCs will account for 46% of the expansion in the global work force between 2021 to 2030. LDCs also qualify for preferential treatment in world trade – including duty-free and quota-free market access in many trading partners. These are young vibrant countries with the potential to drive global growth in the coming decades.

The PSF plans to launch concrete partnerships and initiatives including by governments and non-state actors together with the private sector. These include partnerships and initiatives focusing on financial commitments, capacity building, technology and knowledge-transfer and policy-development and reform to promote enabling environments for the private sector in LDCs.

Representatives from the private sector wishing to attend the LDC5 Conference are invited to Register here.

General Information

What is the Private Sector Forum at the LDC5 Conference?

The Private Sector Forum (PSF) is organized to bring the voice of business to a major United Nations Conference on the Least Developed Countries (LDC5) which is held once every 10 years. The LDC5 Conference will convene Heads of State and Governments of the full UN Membership of 193 countries with over 5000 expected participants.

Objective:

The Private Sector Forum at LDC5 will provide opportunities to build transformative partnerships and mobilize long-term investment and finance in the Least Developed Countries, to support their sustainable development.

Outcome:

The key outcome of the LDC5 Private Sector Forum is the launch of concrete partnerships and initiatives which could include but not limited to: commitments for direct investment, facilitate technology transfer, leverage research and innovation and build the necessary capacities and technical competencies of LDCs, mobilise financial and technical support to LDCs across the five thematic sectors and in areas such as support to MSMEs, entrepreneur development, market access for LDCs companies, enabling business framework in LDCs, and commitment from private sector to apply ESG principles and support the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals and the Doha Programme of Action.

The three-day PSF will feature a High-Level Opening Dialogue led by the United Nations and the President of Microsoft, five thematic sessions, side-events and networking and exhibition areas with booths. The PSF will provide a platform for direct interaction between company representatives and delegations from LDCs as well as other stakeholders, offering business networking opportunities.

Jointly organized by the UN Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States (UN-OHRLLS) and Microsoft, the Forum will convene leaders from the private and public sector including political leaders from the Least Developed Countries and development partner countries, CEOs of global companies and those from LDCs, impact investors and foundations, heads of international organizations as well as regional and international financial institutions. The Private Sector Forum will take place on the margins of the Fifth UN Conference on the Least Developed Countries (LDC5) taking place in Doha, Qatar, from 23 to 27 January 2022.

Accreditation, Participation and Registration

How can I attend the Private Sector Forum?

Non-governmental organizations that are NOT in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council and other stakeholders are invited to apply for accreditation with the Economic and Social Council via the Application for Special Accreditation Form managed by the United Nations Non-Governmental Liaison Service (UN-NGLS).

The form is online until December 1st, 2021 (9am EST) and we encourage application for accreditation as soon as possible. At the accreditation stage, the company does not need to specify the names of individuals attending the Conference. Registration will open to accredited stakeholders around late November until the end of December. Names of individuals attending the conference will be required at the Registration stage.

ALL participants (including those in consultative status with ECOSOC) need to be registered to get access to the Qatar National Conference Centre and participate in the Private Sector Forum.

Registration will open around late November until the end of December. Names of individuals attending the conference will be required at the Registration stage. For updates on registration please check the LDC5 Conference website www.un.org/ldc5.

For questions relating to participation please email to thowfeequ@un.org and ruohonen@un.org (Subject Line: Private Sector Forum – Registration).

How can I organize a side event at the Private Sector Forum?

There is a limited availability for participating entities (private sector organizations, member states, UN agencies) to organize side events at the Private Sector Forum.

Interested parties are invited to submit their application to organize a side event here. The application process will be open until 30 November 2021. No requests will be considered after this date.

Side events will take place in addition to the main programme of the Private Sector Forum. The topic of the proposed side event should have a clear private sector focus in LDCs and be related to the five thematic areas of the Private Sector Forum.

More information on PSF Side Event format and set-up:

- Accommodate up to 50 people.
- Time slot 1:45 hours each.
- State-of-the-art audio-visual equipment provided (PowerPoint projectors, screens, microphones, announcement boards, and audio equipment).
- In-person events with option to include virtual participation or streaming, which will be the responsibility of the organizing entity.

The schedule of approved side events will be posted on the LDC5 website, together with any registration links, agenda, or background documents.

Accreditation, Participation and Registration

How do I apply for a company booth?

A limited number of company booths are available in the networking zone. Interested parties are invited to submit their application for a company booth here before 30 November 2021.

The company booths are designed to maximize business opportunities through information exchange in Doha. Contents of the booths should match one or more of the five thematic areas of the PSF.

The booth space is fully financed by the host country and are available at no cost (including the header with company logo). All other display materials, including banners, posters, flyers, brochures, catalogs, and other promotional items etc. are the responsibility of participating companies.

Participating companies will be responsible for arranging and financing flights to/and from Doha and accommodation.

- Each booth will be provided with:
- 3m x 3m, panel wall
- 1 header with company logo
- Information counter
- Table with 2 chairs
- Electrical outlet

It is the responsibility of the participating company to ensure the booth is staffed at all opening times of the Private Sector Forum (23–25 January 2022).

How can partnerships be registered for announcing at the Private Sector Forum?

The key outcome of the PSF will be the launch of concrete partnerships and initiatives including by governments and non-state actors together with the private sector.

Partnerships should:

- Be LDCs-specific and related to the priority areas of the new Programme of Action.
- Present innovative solutions that can deliver transformative change in LDCs promoting sustainable economic growth in LDCs
- Have clear role for the private sector in the implementation, and could include partnerships between the private sector and governments, foundations, and other non-State actors and the United Nations system as well as private to private partnerships
- Have concrete deliverables and could include but not limited to: commitments for direct investment, facilitate technology transfer, leverage research and innovation and build the necessary capacities and technical competencies of LDCs, mobilise financial and technical support to LDCs in areas such as support to MSMEs, entrepreneur development, access to market for LDCs companies, create an enabling business framework in LDCs, commitment from private sector to support ESG principles, sustainable development practices
- Have resources for implementation and mechanisms for follow-up

For more information on areas for partnerships across the five thematic sectors of the PSF, please refer to the Thematic Session Concept Notes.

Partnerships will be announced throughout the Private Sector Forum including in the High-level Opening.

If you want to register a partnership and for any questions, please contact UN-OHRLLS at thowfeequ@un.org and ruohonen@un.org (Subject Line: Private Sector Forum Partnership)

Accreditation, Participation and Registration

How do I get my conference badge?
